

Aspirant Group to acquire Maruki Plastics

March 8th, 2017

Aspirant Group (“AG”) announced that on November 21st, 2016, AG managing fund (“AG2”) acquired Maruki Plastics Co., Ltd. (“Maruki”, “the Company”) (<http://www.maruki-plastics.co.jp/>) from founder management through SPC.

Maruki, established in 1980, has been manufacturing recycled plastic compounds and coloring plastic resins at its own factories in Toyama, Japan, which enable the Company to produce multi-variety of small-lot products to satisfy customized requirement of each customer.

AG will support the Company’s sustainable growth path by providing full-time management resource to strengthen its operating platform and to expand domestic sales and export.
