

Aspirant Group to acquire Informatix

July 3rd, 2017

Aspirant Group (“AG”) announced today that, AG managing fund (“AG2”) had concluded acquisition of Informatix(http://www.informatix.co.jp/top/companyinfo/profile_e.html) through SPC together with management team.

Informatix is a Geographic Information System (GIS) engine pioneer company and have been serving as SIer for Public sector complying with their complex functionality and solid security requirements based on their core technologies.

AG will support Informatix, through providing with additional resources on management team to further grow to be a globally competitive software provider by enhancing their GIS core competency and customer networks.